

The State of Texas.

County of Bexar. In County Court of Bexar County, Texas,
To July Term, A.D. 1879.

The Hon. S. J. Smith, County Judge:-

The applicant, Andrew Jackson Leslie, a resident citizen of the County of Bexar, State of Texas, respectfully represents unto your Honor that he is the identical A. J. Leslie who served in the cause of Texas in its struggle for independence, between the commencement of the Revolution at Gonzales in A.D. 1835, and the 1st day of January, A.D. 1837, in the Company of Captain Clifton; that he applied for and obtained a pension under the law of 1874; that he is now and has been since the first day of July, A.D. 1876, in indigent circumstances and makes this application for the purpose of obtaining the benefits of the Pension Act approved July 28, 1876; that he hereby appoints J. G. Fisk his true and lawful attorney in fact to represent him in all matters hereto relating, authorizing him to do all acts in the premises that applicant might or could do if personally present and acting. Therefore applicant prays that the notice required by law be given and that upon hearing of his cause the proper certificate be extended to him, & as in duty bound the applicant will ever pray, etc.

A. J. Leslie.

Subscribed & Sworn to before me this 14th day of June, A.D. 1879.

Sam. S. Smith, Co. Clerk. B. Co., By Oscar B. B. Smith, A. J.

We, the undersigned citizens of Bexar County, Texas, on oath certify that we are well acquainted with the applicant, A. J. Leslie, have known him for many years, and we believe he is the identical person he represents himself to be; and that all his statements are true.

Frank Wallace

H. A. Mitchell

Subscribed & Sworn to before me this 14th day of June, A.D. 1879.

Sam. S. Smith, Co. Clerk. B. Co., By Oscar B. B. Smith, A. J.

(Endorsements)

No. 544. Andrew J. Leslie

vs.

(over)